

I appreciate the freedom of choice that the Indiana Telephone Privacy law has provided. Unwanted calls have been eliminated and that has decreased the irritation level in our home. I certainly hope we will not be forced to receive unwanted calls again because a lower national standard is adopted by the FCC.